

Details of Academic Gown and Insignia Payap University

Bachelor's Degree Gown

- Gown: A cloak made of black fabric, extending about 15 centimeters above the ankle. The gown opens fully at the front, with a 7.5-centimeter-wide black velvet strip sewn along the edges of both sides of the front and around the neck. The gown features pleats in the front, back, and around the arms, with long sleeves extending to the wrists.
- Stole: Made of black fabric, with the outer edges trimmed in light blue and another edge trimmed in the color representing the degree. The inside displays the university's colors—blue with a 12.5-centimeter-wide white stripe running through the center.
- Cap: Made of black fabric, with a flat, square top measuring 25 centimeters on each side. It includes a black silk tassel measuring 22.5 centimeters.

Master's Degree Gown

- Gown: A cloak made of blue fabric (the institutional color), extending about 15 centimeters above the ankle. The gown opens fully at the front, with a 7.5-centimeter-wide velvet strip in the degree's color sewn along the edges of both sides of the front and around the neck. The sleeves extend to the wrists, and there are two 5-centimeter-wide velvet strips in the degree's color on each sleeve, spaced 5 centimeters apart.
- Stole: Made of blue fabric, with the outer upper edge featuring a velvet strip in the degree's color. The lower edge is white, followed by blue (the institutional color), and the degree's color. The inside shows the university's colors—blue on top and white on the bottom.
- Cap: Made of blue fabric, with a flat, square top measuring 25 centimeters on each side. It includes a silk tassel in the degree's color, measuring 22.5 centimeters.

Doctoral Degree Gown

- Gown: A cloak made of blue fabric (the institutional color), extending about 15 centimeters above the ankle. The gown opens fully at the front, with a 12.7-centimeter-wide velvet strip in the degree's color sewn along both sides of the front and around the neck. The sleeves extend to the wrists, with three 5-centimeter-wide velvet strips in the degree's color on each sleeve, spaced 5 centimeters apart.
- Stole: Made of blue fabric, with the outer edges of the stole trimmed in white on one side and the degree's color on the other. The inside shows the university's colors—blue on top and white on the bottom.
- Cap: Made of black fabric in a beret style, with a 3-centimeter gold button in the center. The edges of the cap are connected to the button by two gold silk threads. A golden silk tassel, 12.5 centimeters long, is attached.
- Insignia Pin: A circular metal pin featuring the emblem of Payap University, with a diameter of 3.5 centimeters, worn on both the upper left and right of the chest.
